

SONG: Wait

MOLLY plays hard to get - and gets her man: The seduction of anti-seduction.

MOLLY (sung)

Tommy, not right now; Maybe in a while,
There will come a day, some day,
When I may make you smile.
You'll just have to trust me
Not to disregard...
How I know it must be Hard.

Tommy, not today, and maybe not next week,
How can I consent?
Well, you've hardly spent...
I meant...
That you may kiss my cheek.
Then I guarantee I'll... Well, you never know
Just how far I'd go-
Appreciate-
The things you do for me while you wait. And wait.

Tommy wants and takes-
Has his charms and ways.
Tommy sleeps and wakes,
Something bends, something breaks,
Then the dawn.
Someone stays;
And someone's gone.

Don't give me that look;
Don't sit here and stew.
I got other beaus
I owes -
God knows -
But I'm up here with you.
Don't let's disagree here,
Don't make such a noise,
Like those other boys
Who irritate.
Just be glad to be here
And wait.
Good boy, nice boy... Just wait.
